Noel New Treasurer of County G. O. P. as Wilson Resigns

Selection of Narberth Man Seen as Indicating Leadership Change

GAVE BECHTEL SUPPORT

Indication of a changing leadership in Montgomery County Republican circles was seen this week when Charles V. Noel, Narberth Republican leader, was selected as treasurer of the Montgomery County Republican Committee, a post which had been held by Walter A. Wilson, former Norristown burgess and defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for prothonotary.

Selection of Noel and the resignation of Wilson were announced by Franklin L. Wright, chairman of the county committee at Norristown.

Noel backed Earl B. Bechtel for prothonotary in the primary contest and the overwhelming plurality given the latter by the borough of Narberth was of great aid in assuring the Pottstown man's nomination.

Wilson was supported by State Senator Theodore Lane Bean, titular head of the party in the county.

The new Republican treasurer is chief of the Narberth Fire Company, secretary of Borough Council for the last 25 years, committeeman in Narberth District No. 1, and chief accountant at the county courthouse.

Women's Club Contributes $100 to Community Memorial Fund

A contribution of $100 to Narberth's Community War Memorial fund was voted unanimously by members of the Women's Community Club of Narberth Tuesday at their Colonial tea.

Funds to complete payment of the expense of the Memorial at Windsor and Wynnewood avenues, Narberth, are being raised by the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, and further contributions may be sent to John A. Mowrer, Jr., finance officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Reher, who accompanied Mrs. Gill on the trip which included the Rockies, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Hollywood, where they visited in the homes of the movie stars, the studios and many other places of cinema interest, will show several reels of motion pictures of these places.

A one-act play depicting a Hollywood happening will be given and refreshments will be served.

Due to the program's length the meeting will be called at 8.30 sharp.

Members are urged to invite their friends to be guests of The Players since no guest fee will be charged at this meeting.

South Side Ticket Office Being Built at Narberth

Construction work started this week on an additional ticket office at the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Narberth. The office is being built on the south side of the right-of-way as a convenience to about one-third of the borough's residents.

Rockland Bridge O. K.

The Public Utilities Commission has approved the work on the Rockland avenue bridge improvement, with the exception of the sidewalk on the Narberth side which has not been completed by the township. The improvement included changing overhead wires, a pedestrian's walk added to the bridge and widening of bridge approaches.

Representative Discusses Graft Before Democratic Women

Cases of graft in Philadelphia were discussed before the Lower Merion-Narberth Democratic Women's Luncheon Club, at Haverford, Tuesday, by Miss Anna Brancato, assemblywoman from South Philadelphia.

Miss Brancato, author of the Pawnbrokers License Act passed at the last General Assembly in Harrisburg, said women are needed in public life and particularly in politics.

Miss Frances Dougherty, Haverford, president of the club, urged members to vote for the three Democratic candidates for Lower Merion School Board.

Old Church to be Sold

The old Narberth M. E. Church and lot at the southwest corner of Price and Essex avenues, Narberth, will be sold at auction at 4 P. M. next Thursday on the premises by Samuel T. Freeman & Co., auctioneers. The old church property recently went through a sheriff's sale to clear title.

Nursing Service Explained

Mrs. Naomi L. Gable, director of nursing service, and Dr. Frank C. Rorer, president of the Community Health and Civic Association, Ardmore, explained the nursing service being given in Narberth before the borough Board of Health Tuesday night.

Health Officer George B. Supplee reported these contagious diseases in Narberth for September: Whooping cough, 1; measles, 1; mumps, 2.

Dr. and Mrs. William G. Walton, Anthwyn road, Merion, have just received word that their son, Francis Redding Walton, has been appointed to the faculty of Harvard University as assistant to Mr. Nock.

Francis spent two years in the classical course at the American Academy in Rome, Italy, and during the vacation periods traveled in England, France, Greece and on the way to Palestine stopped in Alexandria and Cairo, Egypt.

Bryn Mawr Hospital Opens Drive For $1,000,000 To Pay Mortgage

A campaign to raise $1,000,000 to pay off the mortgage on the Bryn Mawr Hospital was opened last evening at Goodhart Hall, Bryn Mawr College, with the initial round-up of over 1000 workers.

Arthur E. Pew, Jr., Executive Committee chairman, sounded the drive keynote.

Today, campaign solicitors, under the direction of captains and commanders, began a canvass of the 20,000 homes on the Main Line from Overbrook to Paoli.

Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the Hospital Board of Trustees and chairman of the Campaign Committee, presided.

Mrs. Horace B. Hare, Berwyn; E. W. Ehmann, Brookline, and Daniel E. Weigle, campaign manager, also spoke briefly.

Mr. Pew pointed out that Bryn Mawr, a private hospital, receives no State or Federal government assistance. This, he said, leaves it free of any political allegiance or influence.

Generals for the nine districts, as announced by Edward W. Ehmann, chairman of the Community Council, are:

District No. 1, Bala-Cynwyd-Merion-West Manayunk; Harry V. Ryder and Charles S. Shinn.

District No. 2, Narberth-Penn Valley; John A. Miller.

Districts Nos. 3 and 4, Ardmore-Continued on Page Three

Final payment of the debt is expected within a month, according to John Park Lee, assistant to Dr. Luther C. Harr, State Secretary of Banking.

Funds accumulated thereafter by the bank's receiver, Mr. Harr, will be available for depositors' accounts, but about $300,000 is needed to declare a 5 per cent dividend.

Five per cent was paid in February, 1933, and 10 per cent in December, 1934, the payments totalling $920,061.

Rotary Members Hear Talks on Three Sports

Adam on Football, Anderson on Basketball, Davis on Baseball

Main Line giants in three popular sports turned the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club's usually dignified luncheon meeting Tuesday into a grandstand rally.

Gene Davis, manager of Narberth's champion baseball team (also a borough councilman and Rotarian), traced the history of his team which has won fifteen pennants in twenty-seven years of Main Line League play. He also told what a good team can do to advertise a community.

Al Adam, Lower Merion High football coach, said loyal backing of local residents would help his team to a good season. He mentioned with regret that there were more Easton rooters than Lower Merion folk at last Saturday's 13-13 game played at Ardmore.

Bill Anderson, basketball coach for the Maroon, painted a dreary picture of the Lower Merion quintet's chances in the forthcoming season. Anderson, who lost ten lettermen by graduation last June, usually has his boys way up front, but he held out no hopes for this year.

Dr. Raymond M. Staley, as the day's chairman, presented gloomy Bill with a "crying towel" before he started to break the bad news.

McConnell Rechosen Merion Post Leader

Vice-Commanders Are John W. Keller and Ralph F. Moss

Merion American Legionnaires Tuesday night re-elected Howard H. McConnell, of Meetinghouse lane, Merion, as post commander.

First vice-commander, chosen without opposition, was John W. Keller, while Ralph F. Moss was elected second vice-commander over three other candidates.

Other officers chosen at the meeting in the Merion War Tribute House were Allen B. Coffman, re-elected adjutant; William E. Chambers, finance officer; George H. McMullen, historian.

Fifteen members elected to the Executive Committee are Charles M. Betts, 3d, William K. Cookson, E. Clark Creager, Lawrence Edson, Theodore A. Engstrom, Harry A. Ferreira, Jr., E. Lewis Gibbs, Chester S. Ivory, Henry M. Justi, Jr., Joseph J. Klumpp, Lee Krauss, Norman D. MacBean, George J. Ourbacker, Charles N. Peacock, Jr., and Philip B. Wilson.

Dues were raised from $5 to $7.50 per year.

Speakers of the evening, who discussed the Chinese-Japanese undeclared war from the viewpoints of Navy officers, were Commander Richard W. Wuest, U. S. N., retired, now plant engineer at the Baldwin Locomotive Works, who has been stationed in China, and Lieutenant Commander J. W. Rogers.

W. C. T. U. to Meet Monday

The Narberth Branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet Monday afternoon, at 2.30, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Gross, 218 North Narberth avenue, Narberth.

G. O. P. Women's Leader

MRS. JOHN Y. HUBER, JR.
president of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women, who will preside at the opening luncheon meeting Tuesday.

Republican Women Will Hold Luncheon

Judge Harold G. Knight Will be Guest Speaker at Opening Luncheon Tuesday

The opening luncheon meeting of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women will be held Tuesday at Whitehall, Haverford, with the Hon. Harold G. Knight as guest speaker.

All the candidates, both county and local, will be present, as well as Republican leaders in the county and State. Under the leadership of Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., president of the council, this meeting promises to be an outstanding success.

The council is signally honored in securing Judge Knight, who is president of Montgomery County, as the guest speaker. He is not only a brilliant and effective orator, but his speeches have always been an inspiration for a concentrated endeavor on the part of the Republican party to roll up the usual large Republican majority in the county.

The council program for this year promises to be one of unusual interest covering a range of subjects and activities far surpassing other years.

This program should be an inspiration to all Republican women toward party rebuilding and a tribute to the leadership of Mrs. Huber whose loyalty to party principles and conviction of the soundness of the party's position on fundamental issues, has ever been stimulation to her council members.

Narberth Juniors Help Blind Resident With 'Talking Book'

Helping those who are less fortunate has always been a creed of the juniors of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth, who are glad to announce that a "Talking Book" has been purchased and is being enjoyed by a resident of the community. Although the juniors contributed, the credit for the purchase must go to Miss Kay Wheeler and her Braille Committee, who were in charge.

For the information of those who do not know what a "Talking Book" is, it is a machine which plays or talks records on the principle of the Victrola. It is invaluable to those either too old or too young, or for some other reason incapable of learning braille. The "records" may be obtained through the Philadelphia Library or from Washington.

Constitution Brought 'Oneness of Purpose' Asserts Dr. Althouse

Speaker Addresses Women's Community Club at Colonial Tea

FASHION SHOW OCT. 19

The people of this community are fortunate in living near the scene of one of the greatest gatherings on any continent, that of Constitution Hall, in Philadelphia, where the constitution was signed, according to Dr. Calvin O. Althouse in his address on the Constitution at the Colonial tea given by the Women's Community Club of Narberth, Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Althouse showed how the states with their separate interests and their state issues of money were brought into a oneness of purpose through the strength of character of the "intellectual giants" who represented them.

Preceding the address the salute to the flag was led by Scout representatives from the Narberth school, Barbara Smedley, from the Girl Scouts; Jane Austen, from the Brownies; Harry Middleton, 3rd, from the Boy Scouts; and Dick Whiting, from the Cubs. Mrs. C. F. Kuebler led the singing of America, with Mrs. B. F. Best as accompanist. Mrs. E. J. Pollock, chairman of the Program Committee, introduced Dr. Althouse.

Convention reports were given by delegates. Mrs. R. C. Heath, chairman of Hospitality, said that the luncheon at Green Hill Farms, City Line, Overbrook, October 19, would be open to the public. A Fashion Show will follow the luncheon. Tickets will be one dollar, and reservations must be made to Mrs. J. E. Burrell by the 17th. Mrs. P. A. Wales, chairman of Transportation, asked that those wishing transportation that day phone her. Cars will be at the south side of Narberth station at 12.15.

Mrs. C. A. Farmer, chairman of Public Welfare, said that visitors were welcome to the Health Center, which is open every Wednesday behind the Fire House.

The Bryn Mawr Hospital —A Community Service

Forty-four years ago a small group of citizens, inspired by the desire to be helpful to others, conceived the idea of a hospital for this community. This purely unselfish thought was accepted by others, and found expression through the building of a small institution containing twenty beds.

Since then, through the years, the physical improvement and development of this institution continued as more citizens accepted the idea of helpfulness to others, until today this hospital stands a monument of useful service in the community — a living realization of an idea; perhaps a dream.

A hospital like any other building made of steel, brick and mortar, is as such, incapable of any useful service. It is inanimate, lifeless, without spirit. The equipment, scientific apparatus, and delicate instruments, can do nothing without the help of human hands, directed by trained minds. Open the doors and admit into the picture, the physicians, surgeons, specialists, technologists and all these inanimate material things become useful instruments for the comfort and healing of the sick and injured. The hospital now becomes, in its broadest sense, an institution for good and useful service.

The hospital and staff, no matter how well equipped and manned, or altruistic in its purpose, is of itself, insufficient to carry out the full idea to which it has been dedicated. It needs the help of friends, for in the true fulfillment of its obligation to the community, there are many who are given its services without remuneration.

Herein lies the opportunity for the people of a community to help others—those who are less fortunate, who are injured or sick. Surely there is no citizen in our community who would not lend a helping hand to one in distress if he found him sick or injured on the street. These unfortunates are not on the streets, but in our hospital under the care of physicians who, day and night, render service unselfishly and without compensation in an attempt to return them sound and well to their families. Is it unreasonable to ask the people of the Main Line to share in this responsibility?

Across Lancaster pike are great banners crying, "HELP! HELP! HELP!"

What does it mean? Has a great catastrophe happened? No! The Bryn Mawr Hospital's Officers, Board of Directors, Women's Board, Staff, Community Council, and devoted friends, are asking the sixteen thousand families living in the Main Line area to help remove the burden of a mortgage from its hospital, so that it can extend and continue services to the people, in a measure, greater than ever before.

The success of any great campaign depends to a large degree on—first, the general acceptance of the idea and the co-operation of all organized groups—secondly, a relatively small unit of work for each volunteer, and a broad distribution of this work throughout the community.

In the first instance, there is a very sympathetic and general in-

President 16th Time

TRISTAN B. DEMARAIS
re-elected president of the Narberth Fire Company, a post he has held for the last fifteen years.

Interest in the success of this campaign, as evidenced by the endorsement of the proposition by all Service Clubs, Women's Clubs, American Legion, and the entire ministerial group along the Main Line. This is most encouraging, but without the individual, active participation of the members of these various organizations, effective results are difficult to obtain.

In the second instance, the unit of work assigned to each volunteer is ten subscription cards. Therefore, to reach sixteen thousand families, sixteen hundred workers are necessary. One thousand men and women have volunteered. There are units of work for six hundred more.

The decision to do your part remains with you. Will you make a contribution, or will you go the full way and also help convert the endorsement of your organized group, club, or church, into an active, living effort as a volunteer?

Walter Hampden Opens Monday at Erlanger

A tender and appealing story, labeled by its author, Jerome K. Jerome, as an idle fancy, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," which Walter Hampden will present at the Erlanger Theatre for one week commencing October 11, has long since established itself among the classics, both of literature and the stage.

Walter Hampden's record in the theatre reads like a contemporary history of the American stage. He had seven consecutive years of acting and producing in his own theatre in New York; he played "Cyrano de Bergerac" 868 times, "Caponechi" followed with 597 performances, he has played "Hamlet" 602 times, he gave "Othello" 56 consecutive performances, and Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People" scored 72 consecutive performances.

In "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," Mr. Hampden is supported by Edith Ketchum, Marie Paxton, Mabel Moore, Faith Avery, Ada Sinclair, Byron Russell, Iris Whitney, Horace Sinclair, Charles Paul, George Rathbone and David Leonard, who also staged the production.

Cynwyd Club Tennis Season Closes With Members' Tournament

Tybeskey Wins "Closed" Tournament While Nicely Dethrones Custer

LADIES' FINALS SUNDAY

Tennis at the Cynwyd Club is closing in a blaze of glory for the 1937 season. The most interesting finals in the club's history in the "closed" tournament, which comprises members of the club who are not on the Inter-Club Cynwyd teams, was held Sunday, between Frank Tybeskey and William Wilson.

The match lasted for three hours, and went the limit of five sets; Tybeskey finally winning by the score of 6-1, 5-7, 6-3, 6-8, 6-3.

In the regular club championship for men, Thomas Nicely dethroned the club champion, John Custer, rather easily in the semi-finals, and Gordon Straub disposed of Norman Bramall in the semi-finals, but in the finals Gordon Straub defeated Nicely in four sets for a new club champion.

In the Intra-Club championship for 1937, Harmon Friel's team won with Robert Monroe finishing second. The teams of Stuart Graham and Jack Leighty finished near the top of the eleven teams.

The doubles championship was won in four sets by Tom Nicely and John Custer, who defeated Gordon Straub and Norman Bramall.

The finals in the Ladies' Tournament will be concluded, weather permitting, Sunday afternoon, most likely between the first and second seeded players, Mrs. E. Beatty and Miss Sue Peterson.

School Nurse on Duty

Miss Bessie Drane began her duties this week as part-time nurse at the Narberth Public School. Miss Drane, who comes to Narberth from the Community Health and Civic Association, Ardmore, gives two hours' time to the school daily.

Easton High School brought a heavy and aggressive team to Pennypacker Field last Saturday. After 40 minutes of assorted football tricks the visitors were tied with Lower Merion, 13 to 13. The local lads came from behind in the first half to forge ahead 13 to 7 by virtue of some fine running by Captain Joe Stinger mixed with clever signal calling on the part of the quarterback. The scoring play was a thing of beauty. Stinger took the ball off tackle on the left side of the line, cut back to his right sharply and as he was tackled a few feet from the goal line lateraled the ball to Nick Jones, who went over standing up. Jones scored both touchdowns and kicked the extra point after his second scoring jaunt.

Coach Adam takes his boys to Abington tomorrow. Last year Abington came to Pennypacker Field with a big, green eleven. The lads looked dangerous, but they were too inexperienced to work well as a unit. This season they will be veterans. It behooves the local squad to take Coach Snodgrass and his minions seriously for there is potential dynamite in that outfit this season.

Ben Seavers did some fancy punting for Coach Adam against Easton. That lad can boot with the best of them in the suburban area.

Coach Dick Mattis' Junior High boys journeyed to Coatesville and did the expected thing by defeating the Ironworkers, 12 to 6. The Leopards did all of their scoring in the first half and then sat back on their heels and rested during the last half. However, Coach Mattis kept his slate clean in the first game of his eighth year of coaching at Lower Merion. His record is still the best. His team has never yet been defeated by a Junior High eleven and he has but two or three tie games over a seven-year period. Quite a smart record indeed. Today the boys go to Pottstown Junior High for one of their tough meetings of the year.

First in the series of six plays to be given at the Erlanger Theatre by the Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre will be "Daddy Long Legs," on October 23, at 10.30 A. M.

On M. I. T. Honor Roll
John Barclay McCreery, of Narberth, is one of 596 students whose high scholastic standings give them a place of honor on the Dean's List of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

"Damaged Lives" at Narberth Next Thursday and Friday

Hailed by the medical profession and press as one of the most important educational pictures ever made, "Damaged Lives" will play an engagement at the Narberth Theatre next Thursday and Friday.

The picture is an open and frank treatment of the dangers of syphilis and other venereal disease. While no one under 16 will be admitted to the showings, the film is directed for intelligent persons and is not to be confused with pictures of the sensational variety.

Press comments include: "Courageous film"—New York Daily News. "Honest, dignified—possibly the most outspoken film made for public consumption"—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. "A subject much too important for the 'hush-hush' treatment it usually receives is discussed with intelligence and commendable forthrightness."—Philadelphia Evening Public Ledger.
